Sharing Our Abundance

This little light of mine, I’m going to let it shine.
This little light of mine, I’m going to let it shine,
let it shine, let it shine, let it shine.

You may have sung that song in Sunday School. At Christ Church, we invite people in by saying, “Welcome to the Light.” Stewardship involves not just giving but sharing. Sharing the Light—letting our light shine.

Christ Church will flourish as a place of Christian love and community when we share generously from our abundance. We invite you to embrace this year’s stewardship theme, “Sharing the Light,” and ask you to share your gifts and experience the joy of giving.

In addition to supporting local and world missions, we have chosen to invest in additional staff and programming to nurture our growing church family. This will increase the church’s operating budget to about $375,000 for 2015. Just as we are illumined by the Light of God through this church, we all share in tending the Light.

You are invited. On Sunday 9 November, the stewardship committee will serve brunch immediately following the morning service. We will enjoy good food and warm fellowship and learn how sharing out of our abundance will allow Christ Church Lutheran to be a beacon of God’s light in the coming year—in and outside of our congregation. Please save the date and come.

All Saints Sunday

On All Saints Sunday, November 2, we gather to remember and give thanks for our dear ones who have died, especially those who have departed this life this past year. We also give thanks for all the saints who rest from their labors. In worship that day, we light candles—in remembrance and as a sign of God’s perpetual light shining upon them. We also read the names of all who have died this past year, each name followed by the toll of a bell. We are gathered up in the beautiful prayer of the day for All Saints:

Almighty God, you have knit your people together in one communion in the mystical body of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Grant us grace to follow your blessed saints in lives of faith and commitment, and to know the inexpressible joys you have prepared for those who love you, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

And we feast at the table with the faithful of every time and place, trusting that the promises of God will be fulfilled and that all tears will be wiped away in the new Jerusalem. Come, remember, and give thanks.
Announcements

Retirees
The retirees will not meet in November due to the Thanksgiving holiday.

New Members
New members Kate Haugen and Carlton Hunke, and Leif Voltz were welcomed on Sunday 26 October.

Retreat Opportunity
Dick Bruesehoff will lead a retreat on Naming and Claiming Your Strengths on Saturday 8 November from 9am–12:30pm. This event is open to all. See page 8 for more details.

Looking Ahead
• Congregation Meeting, Sunday 14 December, 11:15am in the sanctuary.

• Midweek Advent Services begin Wednesday 30 November. Every Wednesday in Advent come for worship at 11:30am followed by lunch and then 7:00pm preceded by supper at 6:00pm.
Finances Update

The finance committee wants to provide you with the most current information about our congregation’s finances. In addition to other communications, we will provide a quick report on the state of our operating budget in each issue of The Courier.

The deficit in envelope (member) giving increased only slightly in September, so there is hope that this area will begin improving in the last months of the year. Please help us with that by paying what you have pledged for the year—a little extra would be welcome too. Our expenses are within budget. If you are eligible to designate 2014 Thrivent Choice dollars for Christ Church Lutheran, please do so. This is a wonderful way to support CCL at no expense to you.

Lutheran Poetry

Melody Pauling found a clipping among her father’s things that looks like it came from a church newsletter:

So Far, Lord . . .

Dear Lord, so far today
I’ve done all right.
I haven’t gossiped,
haven’t lost my temper,
haven’t been greedy, grumpy,
nasty, selfish, or over-indulgent.
I’m very thankful for that.
But in a few minutes, Lord,
I’m going to get out of bed.
And from then on,
I’m probably going to need
a lot more help.
Amen.

From the 21 October Council Meeting

In lieu of reproducing the minutes of each council meeting, we are offering highlights. Complete minutes are always available for review from the church office.

Will Stark led the devotions for our meeting. He introduced a quote from Karl Barth that Susan Briehl used at the forum she recently led. “Grace and gratitude belong together like heaven and earth. Grace evokes gratitude like the voice an echo. Gratitude follows grace like thunder lightning.” (Karl Barth, Church Dogmatics I). We read it together several times and offered our reflections.

Next we spent some time discussing what we heard at the council forum on Sunday 12 October, including written feedback. We also discussed Dick Bruesehoff’s presentation at the 19 October forum about what happens to congregations as they reach certain size thresholds.

After a few housekeeping decisions, we heard from Pastor Carlson that Helge Voigt, a pastor from Leipzig who helped host a delegation that we sent to Leipzig and who visited Christ Church Lutheran, has received approval to come to the US for a year and learn about the practices of Lutheran churches in this country. He would like to do this at Christ Church Lutheran in a pastoral exchange that would also send a pastor from this synod to Leipzig. The discussion is still in its early stages. The exchange would likely not involve any of our current staff going to Leipzig.

Next we turned our attention to the upcoming sabbatical for Pastor Carlson and for the congregation as a whole. The goal is still to make it an event that renews all of us. Since funding from the Lilly Foundation is not going to be an option, we discussed what funding might be available from our own resources. We requested that the pastoral support committee bring a few different proposals for our consideration.

The capital campaign task force together with the mission committee has recommended that the mission component of the upcoming capital campaign support two specific causes: Beacon Interfaith Housing Collaborative and “Always Being Made New: the Campaign for the ELCA.” Beacon is involved in building shelters for homeless youth in our area, and the ELCA campaign supports many mission initiatives. We decided to include this recommendation in the plan for the capital campaign that will be presented to the congregation.

We heard a number of reports from our pastors and from various committees and task forces. Many people are doing a lot of good work each month. We adjourned with the Lord’s Prayer.

Fountain disassembled for winter once again. Thank you, property committee.

The beauty of nature is reflected on the high altar on many Sundays. Thanks to Sarah Brunsvold for this colorful recent arrangement.
Christ Church kids love their new puppies.

Erla and Howard Polsfuss are honored for their combined fifty-plus years of service as Meals on Wheels volunteers. Howard spoke passionately about this work: “Feed the hungry. Nourish your soul.”

Rick Hoyme (top right), of the Northwest Wisconsin Synod, was on hand. Rev. Foy Christopherson (top left) of Central preached. Kris’s call is to Peace Lutheran in Menomonie, Wisconsin. She is very grateful to Christ Church for mentoring her so well for parish ministry.

Annual Children’s Christmas Gift Sale

Each year the Plymouth Christian Youth Center sponsors a Children’s Christmas Gift Sale. For a small donation of $1, low-income children in North Minneapolis can purchase five new gifts to be given to parents, grandparents, siblings, or other loved ones—and learn the joy of giving as they “shop” alongside a caring volunteer. This spirit-filled mission is near and dear to our hearts, and Christ Church Lutheran will again be participating.

PCYC needs over 5,000 gifts and 300 volunteers to transform their campus into a Christmas gift store and help 1,000 youth shop for their loved ones on Saturday, December 13, 2014. There are a number of ways you can help:

- Donate money.
- Buy gifts valued at $7–10 each, or regift new items from gifts you have received and never used.
- Volunteer to set up before the sale at PCYC.
- Volunteer on the day of the gift sale—Saturday 13 December from 9:15am to 2:00pm. Volunteers must be over eighteen years old.

What a wonderful opportunity this is for us. With your help, we can make a tremendous difference for these children. Watch for the mission committee’s table after Sunday worship services in November.

Author Talk

Saint John’s Abbey Church: Breuer, the Benedictines, and Minnesota Religious Architecture

Sunday 16 November, 2:00pm, Christ Church Lutheran

The Friends of Christ Church Lutheran are hosting an “author talk” with Dr. Victoria Young of Saint Thomas University about her new book on Saint John’s Abbey Church in Collegeville. A reception and book signing will follow the lecture, which is cosponsored by DOCOMOMO/Minnesota and the Minnesota Chapter of the Society of Architectural Historians. This event is free and open to the public.

Designed by Marcel Breuer in collaboration with the monks, this untested religious designer produced a work of modern sculptural concrete architecture that reenvisioned what a church could be and set a worldwide standard for midcentury religious design. Today, the Benedictine Abbey of Saint John the Baptist in Collegeville, Minnesota, stands along with Christ Church Lutheran among Minnesota’s internationally recognized modernist religious architecture.

Dr. Victoria Young is a friend of Christ Church and has previously spoken to our congregation. Please join us as she shares with us the dialogue of the design process, as Breuer instructed the monks about architecture and they in turn guided him and his associates in the construction of a sacred space in the crucial years of liturgical reform. Her new book, Saint John’s Abbey Church: Marcel Breuer and the Creation of a Modern Sacred Space, showcases the importance of modernism in the design of sacred space and of Marcel Breuer’s role in setting the standard.

Naming and Claiming Your Strengths: A Morning Retreat

Saturday 8 November
9:00am–12:30pm

Is there anything more satisfying than doing something that you’re proud of, you’re good at, and you enjoy? Wouldn’t it be wonderful if you could live that way all the time? While that’s not possible all the time, if you haven’t taken time to explore these questions, you may be less likely to know your strengths and be deliberate about using them.

Once again, Christ Church is delighted to sponsor this experience of Dependable Strengths. Together we’ll explore the gifts and strengths we each have demonstrated in our daily lives. All ages—younger and older—are welcome. All you need to bring is yourself and your own life story.

Led by Dick Bruesehoff | Use the sign-up sheet in the atrium | Contact Pastor Haaland with any questions.
Shelter Meal Fundraiser

Thanks to all who attended and contributed to the shelter meal fundraiser on Sunday 28 September. It was a great success. Including a very generous anonymous gift of $2,000, we collected nearly $4,000 to provide ongoing meals at Our Saviour’s Shelter and SafeHouse, a shelter for homeless youth.

Thank you, Christ Church, for your generosity. Thanks also to the mission committee for organizing this great event. Rachel Mann planned the meal and organized the cooking. DeAne Lagerquist, Mark Jensen, Pastor Haaland, and Michael Jefferis helped with the cooking and the serving. Great thanks all around.

The beef stew pictured below is something we serve often at Our Saviour’s.

2 November—All Saints
The Peaceful Revolution—Saints in Our Time
Rev. Paul Rogers
For the people of Leipzig, Germany, October 9, 2014 marks the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Peaceful Revolution. During most of the 1980s, Peace Prayers were held every Monday evening in Leipzig’s Nikolai Church. By the end of the decade, churches in other cities were also having such peace prayers. This tradition of prayers and candles, which filled the streets of Leipzig on October 9, 1989, made a major contribution to the peaceful transition of the German Democratic Republic from a communist government to reunification with the Federal Republic of Germany. Paul Rogers will report on the issues and events of the anniversary in Leipzig.

9 November
Sharing the Light
Stewardship Brunch
All worshiping people of Christ Church are encouraged to attend the “Sharing the Light” stewardship brunch this Sunday to celebrate our commitment to support the ministry of Christ Church Lutheran after worship.

16 November
Mozart’s Last Year
Paul Jacobson
As part of our 2014–15 music series, WolfGang, an eighteenth-century-style chamber ensemble, will present a concert of W. A. Mozart’s music at Christ Church this evening at 7pm in our Sanctuary. Ahead of that performance, come to the forum to learn about Mozart’s Last Year—a year filled with both personal tragedy and the creation of poignantly grace-filled music.

23 November—Christ the King
The Sublime, the Subterranean and the Practical: A Virtual Tour of Christ Church—the Building
Will Stark
As we begin talk of a capital campaign for upgrades and repairs to our building, the property and preservation committees offer a virtual tour of our building’s lesser known corners and crevasses. Understand the challenges facing us and learn more about how we can preserve, protect, and make more accessible this remarkable space for future generations.

30 November
A Lectionary View of the Gospel of Mark
Pastor Kristine Carlson
This First Sunday in Advent begins a new church year and, along with it, a new gospel for our worship readings. This year, most of our gospel readings will be from the Gospel of Mark. Pastor Carlson will introduce us to this Gospel and talk about how we will read it throughout the church year: not from beginning to end as we might read it in our Bibles but in its lectionary arrangement.
