Finances Update

The finance committee wants to provide the most current information about our congregation’s finances. Here is their overview of our operating budget as of the end of October. They note that member giving lags behind the budgeted amounts for 2015 but that expenses remain below budget as well. November and December are typically generous months when it comes to giving, so they hope to see this shortfall diminish as we reach the end of the year.

From the Church Council
November Council Meeting

We began our meeting with devotions, considering Isaiah 25 (a feast of rich food) and Luke 16 (the one who is faithful in little things is faithful in big things). We did some dreaming about a feast budget, what we would like to see happen if money was no object, then we talked about the need to be faithful in caring for the resources we do have, both financial resources and intangibles that make up the life of the church.

After some work planning the details of the next two congregation meetings (13 December and 14 February) and the council forums the week before each meeting, we turned our attention to the major project for the night—preparing a budget to present at the congregation meeting on 13 December.

Budget requests from the various units in the congregation are higher than the anticipated revenue for the coming year, so we spent a good bit of time bringing revenue and expenses together to a common number. We decided to keep the amount drawn from endowment earnings at the same level as last year. The plan had called for gradually reducing this amount. Some of this is supporting the salary for our associate pastor. In previous years $10,000 from endowment earnings went to the visioning fund, a fund to provide seed money to members who have ideas about new projects at Christ Church Lutheran. We reduced this amount to $5,000, shifting the remainder to fund new staff who are working with the children in education and music.

For the past two years we have been working to bring the salaries of Pastor Carlson and our cantors within synod guidelines. These salaries are still low from times when finances were quite tight for the congregation. We were not quite able to increase these salaries as much as our plan called for, but we are getting closer to being within synod guidelines, and work on that goal is continuing still. We hope to have a good result for the final budget presented in December.

We received reports from our pastors and various bodies within the congregation. Offering giving is behind schedule, though expenses are also down. We hope that the typical end of the year surge will come. We heard the good news that Rev. Voigt and his family will arrive from Leipzig on 5 January. The first of what we hope will be many fellowship dinners took place this month. A task force to assess staffing needs is meeting. Much good work is happening among us. We are thankful.

Epiphany Celebration—Worship & Party
Sunday 3 January

This year we will be celebrating Epiphany on Sunday 3 January—just a few days ahead of the actual date of 6 January. You are invited. Come to Christ Church on the tenth day of Christmas, Sunday 3 January, at 9:30am. In worship we will celebrate the feast of the Epiphany.

In the afternoon, we will continue our feasting with an Epiphany Party at 4:00pm. We will eat, drink, and make merry. We will sing some of our favorite Christmas carols. We will bless our church building, our house of worship. We will also send everyone home with a liturgy to bless your own dwelling places—homes, apartments, bedrooms—for the coming year. It is an ancient tradition to bless dwelling places on the feast of the Epiphany—come and learn about it.

All are invited. There will be special activities for children. Plan to come.

Advent Weaving

The new weaving on the east wall in the Chapel portrays the Advent journey from darkness into light. It starts out—on the left—as a forest on a dark winter night, with the northern lights in the background becoming increasingly bright as we near the end of our journey.

This piece was created by the weaving group at Christ Church Lutheran including Naomi Bruesehoff, Lucille Buelow, Mary Ellen Buscher, Ann Davis, Kevin Olsen, Rita Schoenike, and (early on) Pastor Carlson. This group of largely beginning weavers was led by the infinitely patient and reassuring Traudi Bestler who teaches weaving at the Weavers Guild in Minneapolis and at North House Folk School in Grand Marais, Minnesota.

Special thanks to Bob Davis and Ken Schoenike who provided their skills at the beginning and end of the project. Thanks also to the Christ Church Lutheran council for providing financial support through the vision fund, which made this project possible. Members of the weavers group will be in the Chapel at the end of worship to answer questions and talk about their experience designing and weaving this first piece.

This group is about learning to weave, building community and creating art that contributes to our worship and to the beauty of our building. Weavers or potential weavers of any skill level are invited to join us for our second project, starting in January 2016 when we will design and weave new paraments for the green season.

If you would like to join us or have questions, contact anyone in the weaving group or Kevin Olsen at klolsen2@gmail.com.
Everning Prayer with the Bach Society
On Sunday 8 November at 4:30pm, we had a beautiful service of evening prayer with the Bach Society of Minnesota at Christ Church Lutheran. The Bach Society sang Cantata 185 by J. S. Bach, Barmherziges Herze der ewigen Liebe (Merciful heart of eternal love)—a lovely cantata about the compassion of God and our call to love and serve the neighbor. As the light of the day faded, we also worshiped with the beautiful liturgy of evening prayer, led by Pastor Erik Haaland and Cantor Robert Farlee. An offering was taken for the outreach ministry of our congregation through music.

The next service of evening prayer with the Bach Society will be on Palm and Passion Sunday, 20 March at 4:30pm. Mark your calendars and plan to come. Invite friends and neighbors to this remarkable worship experience at Christ Church.
A Feast of a Stewardship Luncheon

On Christ the King Sunday, 22 November, we celebrated our 104th anniversary as a congregation. We welcomed nine new members (see their names on page 2); presented a Children’s Bible to each child at Sermon on the Steps (see the following pages); and rejoiced in God’s Abundance, Our Thanksgiving at our stewardship luncheon following worship. All were invited to the luncheon and over one hundred folks attended. Many thanks to the stewardship committee for an amazing event that inspired us all for thankful giving: Kevin Reuther, chair; Naomi Bruesehoff, Matthew Courtney, Liz Gomoll, Harvey Leuning, Lynn Tollefson, and Pastor Carlson.

Christ Church Lutheran Children Receive Bibles

In worship on Christ the King Sunday, 22 November, every child at Christ Church Lutheran was presented with a Children’s Bible. Over two dozen children received Bibles that morning during Sermon on the Steps. They were so eager for their Bibles! All who witnessed it were moved by our children’s joy in scripture. Generous gifts from members of the congregation made this possible. We are most grateful. When a child is baptized, parents and the congregation promise “to place in their hands the holy scriptures.” We are honoring this promise with our gift of a Bible to each child.
