Financial Report

Our giving is lagging slightly behind our goal for the first month of 2017. Since we haven’t yet taken the budgeted amounts out of our investments, the actual deficit for the month is about $1000.

From the Church Council
February 2017 Meeting

The February meeting marked council’s new term. We are grateful for the accomplishments and example of the outgoing council, and we look forward to our opportunities to serve the congregation.

Sarah Brunsvold opened with a devotion. She read selections from Brian Stevenson’s Just Mercy, vividly portraying our humanness through metaphors of brokenness. Ultimately, Stevenson suggests, recognition of our own brokenness leads us to show mercy to others. Sarah related these ideas to passages from Micah and Matthew before concluding with a prayer.

The council voted to change the authorized signers for financial accounts to the current president, vice president, and treasurer.

Will Stark provided an update on the Partners for Sacred Places grant. The next phases include a feasibility study and an orientation meeting in Philadelphia March 14-15. Council approved sharing the cost of this. Pastor Carlson, Mary Bode, Will Stark, and Gordon Olschlager of the Friends will attend the orientation. The Partners will reimburse the team $2,000 for travel-related costs; council agreed to reimburse the congregation’s representatives up to $1,000 for additional expenses.

Pastor Haaland provided an update from the Refugee Mentor Team. The team is coordinating with St. John’s Lutheran of Northfield to help Paul, Ariaat, and their family with the support they need to be successful in Minnesota.

The council will have a retreat on Saturday, 11 March. A retreat later in September will develop this work further. The council reviewed the congregation’s vision and discussed ways to incorporate the vision’s goals throughout its work. This will be an evolving discussion. As always, we encourage the congregation’s ideas and suggestions.

Reports were received about the multitude of good things happening all around us. We heard the exciting news that Pastor Haaland, Pastor Carlson, and Reverend Morrie Wee have been selected to serve on a sixteen-member delegation of the Minneapolis Area Synod led by our bishop, Ann Svennungsen. The delegation will travel to Leipzig, Germany, in May to celebrate the five-hundredth anniversary of the Lutheran Reformation. This is an incredible honor for our congregation. We concluded with the Lord’s Prayer.

Time to Fill up the Wheelbarrow

March finds us at the beginning of Lent, and it is also the time of the Minnesota Food Share collection drive.

Jesus said, “I was hungry, and you gave me something to eat. I was thirsty, and you gave me something to drink. I was a stranger, and you welcomed me.” Those without enough food are strangers to us and they also are our neighbors. In this season of self-sacrifice, give generously so that there may be a goodly share on every table, everywhere.

Christ Church Lutheran will collect food, personal care supplies, and cash for Community Emergency Service. This year, consider a cash donation, a food donation, or a donation of personal care items— toothpaste, shampoo, hand soap, laundry soap (in smaller size containers), toothbrushes, toilet paper, deodorants, etc.

For food, cash goes farther for the food shelf than cans and boxes (food shelves buy at a discount) but your offering of cans, boxes, and jars will be greatly appreciated. Put them at the back if the sanctuary. Checks can be made payable to Christ Church Lutheran, with “Food Drive” on the memo line and placed in the offering plate.

This year we are collecting diapers and donations for Mount Olive Lutheran’s Diaper Depot, a local program that makes diapers available at reduced prices. Donations of cash or diapers can be made during our food and diaper drive. Cash or checks (payable to Christ Church Lutheran, “Diapers” on memo line) can be placed in the offering plate. Packages of diapers can be left in the wheelbarrow at the back of the sanctuary.

Thank you for giving generously to this year’s collection.

Mardi Gras Concert Success

This year’s Mardi Gras Jazz concert was a great success. Band leader Bill Simenson put together a fantastic group of musicians, and just over one hundred people came for the concert. Many attendees were newcomers to Christ Church. In addition, the concert helped to promote a wonderful local organization, the Semilla Arts Program at St. Paul’s Lutheran in the Phillips neighborhood, and we raised just over $1,400! After the concert everyone was invited to the Atrium to enjoy a beautiful Mardi Gras reception, complete with King Cakes. Thanks to all who helped make this day possible.

Music at Christ Church 2017

Lenten Vespers
Sunday 2 April | 4:30pm
Siri Calvedt, soprano
John David DeHaan, tenor
Thomas Bartsch, piano

On the fifth Sunday in Lent, we gather in a service of evening prayer to sing a timeless liturgy and hear a performance of Benjamin Britten’s Canticle II: Abraham and Isaac.

Composed in 1952, Canticle II relates the Old Testament story of God testing Abraham by asking him to sacrifice his beloved, longed-for son. In the church’s liturgy, this story has been heard at the Vigil of Easter. Britten’s musical reflection on this deeply moving story offers a fitting station along our Lenten journey to the cross and resurrection.
Save the dates

Easter Egg Hunt
April 23 will be our annual Easter Egg hunt for kids of all ages. Mark your calendars for this continuing of Easter celebration. Thank you to Mary Brown and Luther for their help in coordinating this event.

Cinco De Mayo/ May Day/ Sunday School Party
The final day of Sunday School will be Sunday 7 May. And we want to celebrate with the whole congregation that evening from 4:00 to 6:00pm. We will be celebrating May Day as well as honoring Cinco De Mayo. Fun and games in the gym, complete with pinata. Everyone is welcome to the table, we will be enjoying a full taco bar and a light lager.

Thanks
A special thanks to Sarah Brunsvold and Robyn Nooney who have worked together to improve our children’s activity bags. There is a new tree at the back of the church with activity bags for children to occupy them during church. Sarah has told us how Freddy loves to run to the tree and pick out what special bag he will have for church on Sunday. Ladies, thank you for your hard work and devotion to our children at Christ Church.

Our New Acolytes
Newly trained worship leaders Chloe, Prince, and Isis celebrate their first Sunday as acolytes in our worship with a group hug with Pastor Carlson and Pastor Haaland. We are thrilled to have their worship leadership now on Sunday mornings.

My Neighbor Is Muslim
Back in 2015, Mary Brown, an ordained pastor and member of Christ Church Lutheran, helped to create a study guide entitled My Neighbor Is Muslim. Working with local Lutheran scholars, her intention was to create a resource to help Christians understand the basic tenets of Islam and learn to be better neighbors to the Muslim members of our community. This study has received widespread use nationally and even internationally. Mary Brown offered a workshop on this resource last October—but due to the continued need to learn about Islam and support our Muslim neighbors we are offering additional opportunities to come together for learning and conversation. Mary Brown will lead these sessions in the Luther Lounge from 1:00 to 2:30pm on the following Saturdays: March 11, 18, and 25. Come to one; come to all three. Different aspects of Islam will be covered at each session.

All are welcome. The study guide is offered through Lutheran Social Service of Minnesota and is available at lssmn.org/refugee-services/study. Paper copies are available at the back of the church. Reading the study guide is encouraged—but not required—to attend these sessions. Our great thanks to Mary Brown for offering these opportunities for learning and conversation.

Courier Transition
Pastor Robert Farlee will be taking over as Courier editor with the April issue. Outgoing editor Josh Messner is pictured here with the family in Michigan: Simeon, Sally, Sue, and Anni.

We are very grateful to Josh for his great work as Courier editor these last years! He developed “the look” of these pages and gave us a Courier we always look forward to reading.
Retiring from His Day Job

If you were to ask his coworkers what they will remember about him, he’s guessing it would be his quirky sense of humor. On 3 March, Christ Church Cantor Robert Farlee retired from our church body’s publishing house, Augsburg Fortress (now part of 1517 Media) as Senior Editor for Worship and Music, after twenty years including five years in the 1980s and from 2001 to present. “It feels like the right time to let go,” commented sixty-seven-year-old Bob. His work on our cranberry hymnal, Evangelical Lutheran Worship, and his development of a new resource for pastors, Sundays and Seasons: Preaching Evangelical Catholic Worship, were two recent contributions he made while at Augsburg Fortress.

Bob will not be retiring from his work at Christ Church. He continues to enjoy his work at church after thirty-five years. He will serve as the new Courier editor, plans to compose more music, and of course looks forward to playing the new Dobson pipe organ.

Both of our cantors, Bob and Martin Seltz, have unique perspectives on music in worship. They are both trained pastors, a rare combination of gifts for a congregation and unlike most church organists. The organ—a good organ—they believe is an important piece in worship. Bob has dreamed of a good organ for Christ Church ever since he arrived in 1981, but he knew other ministries were more important financially. Now the time is right with the estate gift given by the Gliems, marked for the organ. Bob grinned, “It will be different to play a good organ. Over the years I have learned to cope with the present instrument. Now to learn the techniques over again to suit a good instrument will take practice. That will be exciting!”

The routine of the same daily schedule, routine tasks like proofreading publications, and meetings will not be missed. Instead the freedom of flexibility will be savored. Having traveled to every state except Hawaii and Alaska puts two destinations on his wish list. Bob has traveled to many interesting faraway places but not Paris and London. He hopes to experience those cities. Genealogy is also an interest, one which could take him to Sweden, Germany, and England to visit his ancestral roots.

Bob, we wish you all good days in your retirement from Augsburg Fortress, thankful that you will continue to serve us at Christ Church. God speed!

—Mary Bode

2017 Congregation Council

Our 2017 congregation council was installed during worship on Sunday 12 February and held their first meeting on 21 February. Thanks to each of these individuals for being willing to serve our community in this way. Back Row: Melody Pauling, Kate Haugen, Matthew Courtney, Marcus Nooney, Sarah Brunsvold. Front Row: Max Herzberg, DeAne Lagerquist, Will Stark. Not Pictured: Dan Mueller.
